What to do when selecting a US college

What are your non-negotiables?

Research the flexibility options at the college, i.e. summer school

Do your research. What is available in the US and UK?

Consider all options available, not only Division I

Ask to hear about other athletes' experiences of the college

Determine your motivations for going to the US

Consider the size of the college

What to do

Consider whether you're likely to get game time and fit within the roster

Consider the gepraphical location and cultural diversity of the college

when selecting a college

Consider whether you like the team's style of play

Research the academic opportunities available

> Look into the support available at the college

Go on official and unofficial visits

Determine if you think you'll enjoy working with the coach and coaching staff

Determine if you think you'll enjoy playing with the other players on the team

What are your top three criteria?

