WELCOME

As Head of Performance at Basketball England, I am thrilled to highlight the Annual All-Star Event for our U13 and U15 boys and girls. This event not only showcases the incredible talent within our young athletes but also underscores our commitment to nurturing future stars in basketball.

It's a platform where skill, sportsmanship, and the spirit of competition come alive, and I am confident that each athlete's participation will significantly contribute to their development and passion for the game.

We are excited to celebrate their achievements and foster an environment that encourages excellence both on and off the court.

STEVE BUCKNALL
